Safari Forever

Jul 25, 2024 - JoshIsAnIdiot04

I just got this game and there I would recommend this to anyone who likes level creation for two reasons. The first reason I would recommend is just that it's fun. The controls are simplistic yet not tiring, and the minimalistic form of the game lends itself well to much larger ideas. Level creation reminds me a bit of Big Bang Racing (RIP), which will forever be my all time favorite game. The second reason I would recommend is that more players = more levels for me to play and I want to see all the creative levels you all have to offer!!!

Meiner Meinung nach eins der besten Spiele im AppStore. Das Spiel erinnert an Ultimate Chicken Horse vom PC, allerdings mit seinem ganz eigenen süßen Stil. Großes Lob an den Entwickler!

Great little gem

Aug 10, 2020 - lphail

This awesome game is so fun! Easy to get into but can get really difficult. The immediate restart after death makes it more addicting than frustrating. I highly recommend giving the game a shot! (And when you do, make sure to try out my level, "Refutable proof")

Great game

Jul 1, 2020 - kirkland1993

This game has quirky, clean design, and interesting gameplay. It continually introduces new, mario inspired mechanics, and is difficult in a rewarding fashion. No complaints here, would recommend.

Great game with level creation

Jun 28, 2020 - [MrNiceGuy0]

It's a real fun one button platformer with a huge focus on user created levels and great monetization, everything you pay for is cosmetic and there's no grinding or ads at all!

Controls are the most important thing in games like these. Being not able to stop in place is very annoying.

Very Polished

Jun 28, 2020 - SeaLard

This game is very polished and the controls are snappy. There should probably be a tutorial explaining all the mechanics but you pick up on them very quickly when you play story mode.

Still new to the game but you can tell it is well made and the controls feel tight. Play with just one hand

Definitely recommend!

Jun 27, 2020 - Tatertaccoa

I review games! Check out my Steam profile: Tatertaccoa, where I also review PC games... This specific format is original by me and is W.I.P, it will be improved as I review more games. Info: All fields are rated out of 10. 1 meaning that it was horrible in this field, 10 meaning it surpassed with flying colors. Some fields may have text in stead of numbers. THIS IS MY OPINION!! If you don't agree then go somewhere else. This is what I think of the game from what I played. You can either take my advice or leave... Pre-information: -Game size: 116 mb (Small) -Ages: 4+ (Everyone) -Type: Create-your-own platformer -Graphics: 7 (Stylized) -Story(if possible): N/A -Length: 10 (Long campaign Infinite User-generates levels) --Ads: 11 (None, yay!) -Developer: 9 (Individual Developer) -Cost(USD$): Free -Accessibility: 9 Overall score: 10 OS^ compared to expectations: — More details: This game is an overall really good game with the really long and challenging campaign and the infinite, challenging, user generated levels for you to play. The level creator is also really easy to use and many items that you can put in levels from unstable blocks that break underneath you, to logic blocks where you can create small logic puzzles (although I wish you could drag in all directions). Overall, this game is a great game, especially comparing it to most games. The best part is that the game is completely free! You get "Bananas" (The main currency) from people being on you're level or generally being active (I'm assuming) and you can spend those Bananas on boating your level (making it temporarily go higher on the list) and/or other avatars/players (Can also be an in-app purchase). I definitely recommend getting and playing this game!

Amazing community, infinite opportunities

Jun 23, 2020 - toby202

I've had a blast with this game, ranging from the flawless gameplay and very easy controls added with the amazing community levels to test out the unique designs. the community is very generosity and they where very welcoming when joining the discord and of course the level editor is amazing! You can create a Wide variety of levels from challenging platforms to unique contraptions to even making music! Download and let your imagination run wild because this game gives you all the possibilities to do that!
